

January 30, 2015 – BRISTOL DEPUTY CELEBRATES RETIREMENT

Captain Billy McDaniel was a 41-year veteran of the Bristol Virginia Sheriffs Office. He was the first African American appointed as a deputy in Bristol, Virginia. Captain McDaniel began his career as a jail officer and moved through the ranks serving as shift supervisor, assistant chief jailor, and was later assigned to the Court Security Division where he retired as Court Security Supervisor. Captain McDaniel is married and has one son. His post retirement plans include working as a community outreach officer with the Bristol Tennessee Police Department.

See WCYB News coverage here.