

October 25, 2007 - HONOR GUARD RECEIVES TRAINING

On September 24-29, 2007, three members of the Bristol Virginia Sheriffs Office Honor Guard were privileged to attend a nationally known training program hosted by the Goshen Police Department in Goshen, Indiana. Law enforcement officers and firemen from as far away as California were in attendance.

The fast paced training concluded with basic drill movements to a mock funeral performed by all officers of the class. The course upheld its assertion to be informative and in promoting confidence to carry out any ceremony with proper etiquette and respect. "THE LEAST WE CAN DO IS THE BEST WE CAN DO" was stressed throughout the training.
